DAVENPORT

Dean Hare Injured.—Dean Marmaduke Hare of Trinity cathedral, is at the Blackstone hotel, Chicago, suffering from a dislocated shoulder blade received in an automobile accident at Geneva, Ill., last Wednesday. Dean and Mrs. Hare and Mrs. H. A. Torrey were on their way to Chicago in the auto of George F. Lindsay. In making a turn near Geneva the auto skidded and the dean was thrown out. His injuries were cared for in Geneva, after which the party proceeded to Chicago. Although painful, Dean Hare's injuries are not considered serious and he is expected home the early part of the week.

Missing Man's Suit Case Found.—Two suit cases found back of the building of the Harbert Cigar company at Fourth and Taylor streets, belong to Lee Shaw, according to a letter received by Chief Hans Schramm of the Davenport police department, Saturday, from his mother, Mrs. Anna Shaw, living at Poplar Bluff, Mo. The woman writes that she has not heard from her son for five weeks and she is anxious about him. It is not known where he is. In one suit case was found a tablet bearing the name of Lee Shaw and this at first led to the belief that it belonged to Leon Shaw, the man who was killed by being run over by a freight car a week ago. The mother of Lee Shaw was located through the Poplar Bluff police.

Police News.—Tom Foley was given a sentence of 20 days in jail by Magistrate Roddewig on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He was arrested by Officer Al Sanford at the Milwaukee depot, where it is said, he was found asleep with a gun and a box of cartridges protruding out of his pockets. Henry Erickson was picked up on the river front by Officer Sanford and was given 10 days in jail by Magistrate Roddewig on a vagrancy charge. The sentence was suspended and Erickson was ordered to leave the city. George Steckel and John Ahlers are charged with fast and careless driving. They were arrested near Sixth and Warren streets about noon Saturday by Officer Koppes and were day" will designate the playing days. Another flag of similar size will tell where there is no game. There are also eight smaller flags, one containing the name of each town in the Three Eye league. These will be unfurled alongside the big flags, according to the name of the visiting team. By these signals Davenporters will be informed not only when there are home games but at the same time will know the visiting team.

MOLINE

Grant Right to Lay Sewer.—At a special meeting of the Watertown village board the state institution was granted a franchise right to lay the main sewer on Sixth street and First avenue in that village. According to the terms of the ordinance the village of Watertown gives the state a 20-year franchise to lay sewer mains on Sixth street and First avenue in that village and in return the state gives the village the right to connect the new school building and residents living along the course of the sewer main. The village reserves the right to appoint an inspector who shall have power to determine the places where connections with connecting sewer pipes may be made. The Watertown state institution authorities have commenced the work of repairing the septic tank and later will replace the sewer mains with new ones. This part of the work was stopped many weeks ago by the village board.

Arrest Youthful Burglars.—Two youthful law breakers were arrested when Charles Pappas and B. L. Lund were jailed, the charge against them being larceny, and possibly burglary. They, it is alleged, entered a house occupied by a number of Greeks on Burlington avenue and stole about $150 in money and two gold watches. The entrance was made while the occupants of the house were away and the money was collected from the pockets of trousers found hanging in the house. Pappas gave his age as 13, while Lund gave his age as 16.

Erickson Playground Open.—Erickson playground will be opened Wednesday morning with Miss Mattie Anderson of this city as supervisor, from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m. Elizabeth Watson, also of Moline, is to be in charge from 4 until 8 p. m. No basketball, baseball or football games will be allowed, as the yard is small, but all children over two years of age will be welcomed and equipment to suit the taste of every one will be installed. The story telling hour between 2 and 3 o'clock will interest many and will be a splendid way of keeping the children quiet during the hottest part of the day.

Install Curb Lights.—Fifteenth street is to be blaze with light. Modern five-light electric lamp posts are to be erected all the way from Fourth avenue to Eighth, and if the library board wheels into line the row of brilliant lights may be extended north of the railroad tracks. There will be 16 posts to a block, eight on each side of the street. With five electric lights to a post, there will be 80 to a block, or 320 between Fourth and Eighth avenues.

Hospital Is Assured.—A new twin hospital building, to cost in the neighborhood of $80,000 and doubling the present capacity of the flourishing city institution, is now practically assured. The hospital bill passed both houses Saturday in the session which did not adjourn until after midnight. All that is now necessary is Governor E. F. Dunne's signature, and it is not believed that this will be a stumbling block.

Co-eds Study at Y.—Plans for starting a school in salesmanship for both men and women are being considered at the Y. M. C. A. The idea upon which Assistant Secretary McLaughlin, who is handling the proposition, is working, is to limit the pupils to 100 and to divide them into 10 sections so as to handle them easier. The sessions will be held at the association building and will start with a supper in order to instill a social spirit. From 7 to 8 p. m. three addresses are to be Watt Heads Alumni.—At the 37th annual reunion of the Moline High School Alumni association, held in the Moline club rooms, George A. Watt, '93, was elected as successor to G. A. Ford, whose leadership for the past two terms has been most successful. The choice of the new head of the organization was unanimous, no other candidate being mentioned for the position.

Obituary Record.—Summons of death came to Mrs. Fred Lindloff, pioneer resident of Coal Valley, at 3:45 Friday afternoon. She had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Pryce, on a farm south of town. Death was due to infirmities incident to age and came after a lingering illness. Margaretta Rohrer was born in Jensestedt, Holstein, Germany, June 13, 1836, and at the age of 20 came to this country. She removed to Coal Valley in 1867 and had been a resident there ever since with the exception of two years that she lived in Rural township. She is mourned by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Sievers of Davenport and Mrs. R. M. Pryce of Coal Valley, four grandchildren and one brother, Claus Rohrer of Donahue, Iowa; also a host of friends, won by her cheerful and unselfish character in the course of her long residence in the county. Her husband, Fred Lindloff, and two sons were the victims of a mine tragedy about ten years ago. The sons were overcome with foul gases in a shaft sunk on their farm. Mr. Lindloff went down in the shaft and lost his life in attempting to save his sons.

Bell System

No Public Service is Expected to be Abreast of the Day and the Minute like the Telephone

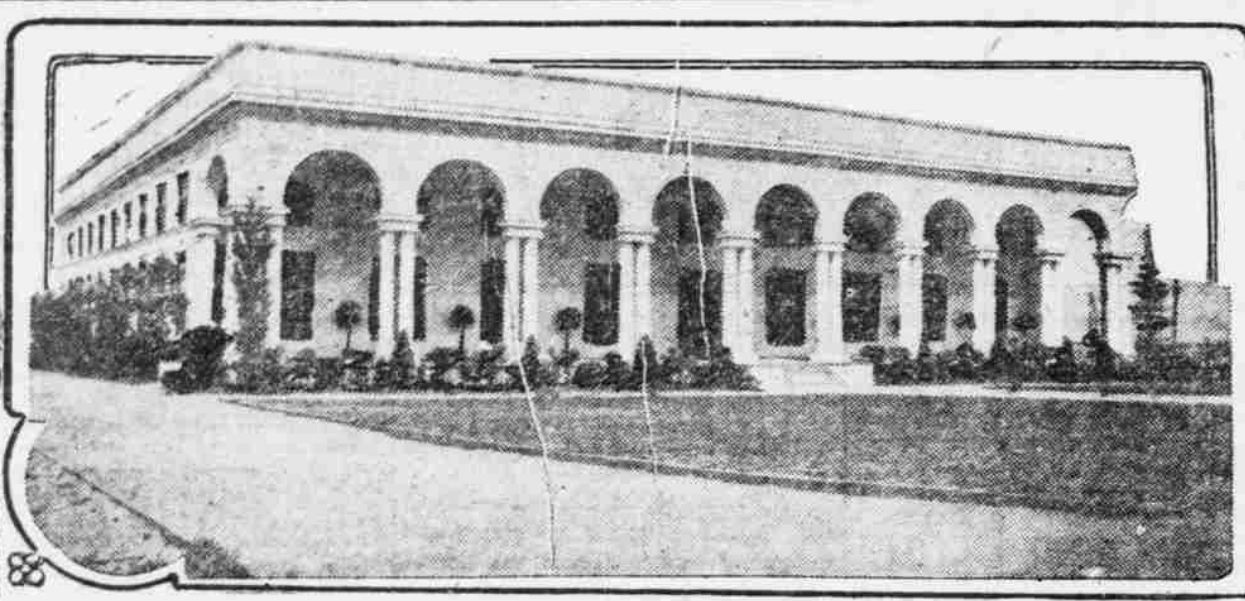

In prompt response to public demand, the number of Bell connections has now risen to a total of 7,000,000 telephones, an increase of 140% in the past four years.

Every one expects as a matter of course that the telephone at his elbow shall be the means of instantaneous communication with everybody else, whether across the way or a thousand miles distant.

The problem of keeping up-to-date the equipment and organization and territory, all developing so tremendously, is being admirably solved by the Bell System.

FIRST BUILDING OF PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION NOW FINISHED

San Francisco, June 23.—With the Panama-Pacific exposition still two years away, the first building—the headquarters of the construction and architectural departments—already has been completed. Although of small size when compared to the huge exhibit palaces it is an imposing edifice. All of the 14 main exhibit palaces will be under construction within a few months and will be completed in July, 1914. As soon as they are finished an army of landscape gardeners and workmen will begin setting out upon the grounds and in the courts millions of trees, flowers, palms and rare shrubs. These include innumerable Former Davenport.—W. W. Wallace, prominent music teacher in the city 30 years ago, is visiting here for the first time since he left the city so many years ago, and is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Drury, 116 West Sixth street. While here Mr. Wallace was leader of the choir. He is now located in Kansas City and is now on his way to Pittsburgh to attend the International Elstedt, or convention of Welsh singers.

To Sue Light Company.—As a result of a gas explosion a few days ago, in which Mrs. Michael Foley, 414 East Eighth street, was seriously burned about the head, and her son, James Foley, an employee of the Peoples Light company, also badly burned, it is understood that suit will be instituted in the local courts for damages against the Peoples Light company. Attorneys have been employed in the matter, but the details of the claims could not be learned yesterday. Mrs. Foley engaged the Peoples Light company to install gas connections in her home and while the workmen were engaged in connecting the pipes, one of the open joints of the pipes which was plugged with dirt permitted gas to escape and when attention was called to the leak, one of the company's workmen applied a lighted candle to the joint and an explosion occurred.
